This 3-piece kitchen utensil set is crafted in solid Slovenian maple wood. The simplicity of basic geometric forms is what makes these utensils elegant yet playful. A Word From the Designer

To me, Ribrand is a synonym for quirky and useful wooden products. Products that are simple and inviting, with a consistent approach that functionality is the key to success. Wood is a very much alive material which transforms and reflects how it's being treated. If you treat it with care, it will stay with you for years to come.
